The President would like to say a few words...

In just a few days, we will be celebrating Yom Haatzmaut, Israel's 74th birthday. I am looking forward to this celebration greatly and hope to see most of you, along with your friends and neighbors, at this joyous occasion.

What makes it truly special, and miraculous to me is the fact that for almost 2000 years, our Rabbis and sages were praying for this, yet it was only in our time that the modern Jewish state became, and remains, a reality. One hundred years ago, when Jews ended their Seders with Bashanah Haba'a b'Yerushalayim (Next year in Jerusalem) it was not...oh, maybe next year we can take a trip to Israel and visit Jerusalem...Israel as a sovereign state did not exist. Some brave souls who were experiencing hardships in their home countries has started to move there, but there was no state until 1948.

It was, and remains, a struggle to exist at all, much less to thrive and become a world leader in technology, medicine and defense sectors, to become the "start-up nation."

We must not ever take Israel for granted. While I cannot remember a world without Israel in my lifetime, they are surrounded by enemies and must stay vigilant at all times. We are fortunate to have as our spiritual leader, Rabbi Emanuel Ben-David, who was born in Israel and grew up there since its infancy, at a time when the average citizen had no phone or TV. He is happy to teach all who would learn about the modern history, strengths and weaknesses of this miraculous state. Don't miss this unique series, held every other Thursday at 4:30 PM.

Keep Israel in your prayers and support our precious jewel. As Jews, we cannot afford to do less.

*L'shalom,
Marlene Shaw, President*

A message from the Rabbi

Shalom, dear members and friends of Temple Beth David.

First and foremost, a big Thank You to Larry Jasper and Marty Reiman who led a group of volunteers that cooked, arranged, organized and assisted in the clean-up of our community Seder. We hosted an overwhelming number of participants – more than 120 – many joined the Seder the last minute (way beyond the RSVP cut-off date). That blessed fact imposed some challenges that may have created some inconveniences. Some of those visitors may become members of our congregation, which is an added blessing in and by itself.

And, it was also a fulfillment of the basic Mitzvah of the Seder that we read at its beginning in Aramaic: “Kol dikhfin yetey v’yekhol, kol ditzrikh yetey v’yupsakh” which means – anyone who is hungry, let him come and eat, whomever is in need, let her come and celebrate Pesach with us. The hunger and the need may not be just physical, but mostly spiritual. The hospitality and welcoming gestures that you all extended are core values of our community.

I also wish to thank all the volunteers – children and adults alike – that played, sung, read and shared most of the Haggadah. You truly turned it into a community owned Seder. And many thanks are in due to all the participants for tolerating the side-effects of the event, be it the longer time it took to distribute the food, or the break of the flow of reading resulted from the need to pass along the microphones so everyone could hear.

Unfortunately, our guest speaker for the month, Moti Tikotinsky, (a member of the Raki-ah Team – the Israeli scientific space program) had a last-minute change in plans that called him back to Israel a few days before his presentation. It was too short of a notice to make a public announcement about the change. In anticipation for an audience of respectable size, I stepped in and prepared a presentation about Israel’s defense technologies that I had the privilege to lead. In fact, Moti’s absence was fortunate because less than a minyan showed up. Just imagine the embarrassment that we, as a congregation, would have experienced, had Moti come from Orlando, devoting the time to us, only to witness such a small audience.

The meager attendance in the event mentioned above, along with the dwindling participation in the various Adult Education programs that we offer, makes me question: Why? Is it the topics? Is it the way I present the material? Is it the lack of clear advance notice about the programs? Please feel free to communicate your thoughts with me in any way that is convenient to you: in writing, in talking to me on the phone, catching me before or after a service, or just come in and meet with me.

I’d like to conclude with another thank you note, to all that came to witness the Yom HaShoah ceremony on Wednesday night. I apologize to all those who could not come and planned on participating via zoom or Facebook: we couldn’t broadcast the ceremony due to lack of internet service that was not rectified in time by our supplier. A special thank you is due to Ms. Susan Burke, that shared her personal experience, telling us how she survived the Holocaust, to Linda Sislik for sharing the story and insights of her employer and friend, and to Dalia Baez and Eileen Beaman that stepped forward to read a story.

With warm blessing for a pleasant spring ahead, and joyous Yom Ha-Atzma’ut celebration,

Rabbi Emanuel

Below is a summary of issues which was up for discussion, at the TBD April Board meeting.

- The Board approved setting aside some rows in the sanctuary for people with face masks.
- Marty was able to collect enough money for a new second stove.
- Using the Temple as a voting precinct, was discussed.
- The foodfest brought in about $8,000.
- It was announced that Nava Cohen is the new wrap and webpage editor and its important to get her and the Temple's calendar coordinator information in a timely manor.
- The Strategic Plan was one of the items approved.
The plan was created by the Strategic Planning Committee, modified by the Executive Board and presented to the Temple's Board for review and approval.
It will now go to implementation with the Strategic Planning Committee training the Directors and developing each committee's specific section of the report.
Board members discussed the need for a secession plan and thinking ahead for future Temple needs.
During the discussion it was noted that the Executive Board and Temple committees are "subordinate to the Temple Board of Directors."

HERE'S ANOTHER WAY YOU CAN GIVE TO TBD!

Do you shop on Amazon? If yes, then we have an easy way to support Temple Beth David with each purchase you make. A few minutes is all it takes to set it up. Just type the word 'smile.' before Amazon.com and you will be brought to the same Amazon site, but on the fundraising side. (<http://smile.amazon.com/>)

Support
Temple Beth David.

When you shop at smile.amazon.com,
Amazon donates.

Go to smile.amazon.com

amazon smile

The first time you go to the 'Smile' side, you will be asked to choose the organization you wish to support. Search for Temple Beth David and make sure it is in Spring Hill (it's actually listed as Temple Beth David Jewish Center). Select us and then just use Amazon like you always do. Everything is exactly the same but remember, we only get credit if you order from the Smile side. It must say 'smile.amazon.com' every time. You use your existing Amazon.com account on AmazonSmile...everything stays the same. The AmazonSmile Foundation will donate 0.5% of the purchase price from your eligible AmazonSmile purchases directly to Temple Beth David.

For more information you can go to: <https://smile.amazon.com/about>
